KAUFFMAN STADIUM TURNS 40 (1973-2013)

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 40th anniversary season at Kauffman Stadium in 2013. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 70,638,469 fans since 1973, "The K", with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of a true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touch each and every fan entering the park.

After debuting the spectacular 84' x 104' Crown Vision HD scoreboard for the 2008 season, the Royals put the finishing touches on one of the most majestic and visually exciting scoreboards in the world with a brand-new interactive crown rising about 40 feet above Crown Vision.

Upon entering through the larger and grander entrances, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 360-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. An increase in both concessions and restrooms limit the time spent away from your seats.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans of Kansas City entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several brand-new locations to take in a game. Unveiled in 2012 was the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with KCP&L. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

The outfield overhaul now gives Royals fans a chance to sit and enjoy the game from a venue not previously offered. The Outfield Box seats in left-center field sit directly behind the outfield wall and in front of the world-famous fountains. Those seats hug the Miller Lite Fountain Bar, which is built on the old JumboTron base.

In front of the fountains in left-center are the Sonic Slam seats. Right-center field offers a "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area has become among the most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the fountains powered by Grundfos.

The left-field area is home to the new 7,000-square foot Hall of Fame, which opened in July of 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as Royals memorabilia that will delight Royals fams.

Travel behind the Hall of Fame and fans will find the kids area complete with the Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there is state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at the Sluggerrr's Putt-Putt, a Royalsthemed carousel, the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Base Run and several kids-friendly food options, including a Sheridan's Signature store.

Fans move along the outfield
"Walk of Fame" toward the All-Starlion and Rivals restaurant in right field, which BBQ pavilion and Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts upscale sports bar food, the FSKC pre and postgame studios and the Budweiser Patio.

The second level of the stadium houses new Dugout concourses, concessions and restrooms.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, feature wider concourses, fan amenities, the Kia Diamond Club premium seating area and 5,000-square foot retail store.

The new Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the Hy-Vee Level has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms and a retail store.

The new Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 and 2012 All-Star Games, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84 and '85 and seven World Series tilts in 1980 and 1985. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at 8 feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to 9 feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world.

In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians. Kauffman, who founded Marion

Ewing M. Kauffman

Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and was one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August I, 1993.

Senior Vice President-Baseball Operations/ General Manager

Dayton Moore was named Senior Vice President-Baseball Operations/General Manager on May 30, 2006. He officially assumed his duties, becoming the sixth general manager in franchise history, on June 8, 2006.

Moore, a native of Wichita, Kan., brought an impressive resume to the Royals in 2006. He had previously worked for the Atlanta Braves organization since 1994, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager/Baseball Operations since August, 2005. Since joining the Royals in 2006, he and his staff have tirelessly worked to build a consistently strong farm system that was rated by Baseball America, MLB. com and ESPN.com as the best in baseball in 2011 and it remains among the best.

Under Moore's leadership, the Royals have signed several key in-house players to long-terms contracts including Zack Greinke, Joakim Soria, Billy Butler, Alex Gordon, Salvador Perez and Alcides Escobar.

Prior to his tenure as assistant general manager with Atlanta, Moore served three years as Director of Player Personnel where he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of scouting and player development. He originally joined the Braves organization as an area scouting supervisor and was promoted to the front office in August, 1996 as an assistant in the baseball operations department, Moore was named Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 1996 and added the title of Assistant Director of Player Development in 1999. He was promoted to Director of International Scouting during the 2000 season and earned a promotion to Director of Player Personnel in 2002.

Moore was presented by the Atlanta Brayes 400 Club with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, given to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" in February 2006. He was also awarded the 2005 Executive of the Year by the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Association. He was named by Baseball America in 2005 as one of the Top 10 Up-and-Coming Power Brokers in Major League Baseball and in 2004, was named the top general manager prospect by the same publication.

Moore played a key role in a majority of the Braves string of 14 straight division titles. Under the leadership of former Braves and Royals General Manager John Schuerholz, the Braves earned the prestigious Organization of the Year Award from Baseball America several times, including 2005, when 18 rookies contributed to a team that posted 90 wins. The Braves won at least 100 games five times between 1997-2003 and had not won fewer than 88 games in any non-strike shortened season since 1990 prior to the 2006 season.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at George Mason University from 1990-1994. While working on a graduate degree at GMU, Moore also managed the Winchester Royals of the Shenandoah Valley League from 1991-1993.

A leader in the Kansas City community, Moore is a regular speaker at numerous community events each year. With the assistance of the Royals, he initiated "C" You In the Major Leagues in 2013, a character and leadership-building program with local high school baseball players who will visit Kauffman Stadium throughout the season.

Moore was a member of the Board of Directors of the NAIA's Champions of Character program from 2007-2010. The program instills an understanding of character values in sport and provides practical tools for student-athletes, coaches and parents to use in modeling exemplary character traits.

Moore and his wife, Marianne, are proud to be involved with the City Union Mission of Kansas City including their service as co-chairs of the Women Who've Changed the Heart of the City banquet in 2011 and 2012.

He and his wife, Marianne, reside in Leawood, Kan., and have two daughters, Ashley and Ayery, and a son, Robert.

KEVIN UHLICH

Semior Vice President-Business Operations

Kevin Uhlich was named the Royals Senior Vice President-Business Operations on November 7, 2006. Uhlich has 36 years of professional baseball experience, most recently serving as Executive Vice President for the Washington Nationals in 2005 and 2006. Uhlich oversees the entire business side of the Royals organization and was specifically involved in the renovations of Kauffman Stadium, which were completed during the 2009 season. Uhlich also led the Club's efforts in the planning and execution of the 83rd Major League Baseball All-Star Game in Kansas City in 2012.

Prior to his tenure with the Nationals, Uhlich spent 28 seasons in the Los Angeles Angels organization, starting as a batboy with the club in 1976. He worked his way through the Angels organization, serving as Vice President of Stadium Operations and Vice President of Sales, Marketing and Operations. He was then named the club's Senior Vice President of Business Operations in 2002; the same season the Angels won their first World Series title.

During his time with the Angels, Uhlich spearheaded the $140 million renovation of Anaheim Stadium that was completed in 1998 and changed the Angels brand identity to southern California's only "red team"; a branding strategy which more than a decade later still dominates the geographic area.

He joined the Washington Nationals organization as their first Executive Vice President as the club made the historic move from Montreal to Washington, D.C., prior to the 2005 season. He assembled the club's entire business department in just 45 days while also supervising a renovation of RFK Stadium leading up to the inaugural first game. During the first two years, while the club was owned by Major League Baseball, Uhlich continued to lead the business efforts as the Nationals transitioned to the new Lerner family ownership group. Alex has a big league-best 96 doubles since the start of 2011, two ahead of the Yankees' Robinson Cano...has joined George Brett (2), Billy Butler (2) and Hal McRae (2) as the only Royals to post multiple 45+ double seasons and joins Brett (9) and McRae (7) as the only Royals to post at least four 35+ double seasons.

Drew 5 walks on June 17 at St. Louis...the 5 walks tied both a career high (also 7/30/08 at Oakland) and Royals franchise high...Gordon is the only Royals player to record 5 walks in a game...Gordon is just the fifth player in baseball since 1980, joining Barry Bonds (3 times), Dale Murphy, Rickey Henderson and Mark Teixeira, and 11th player in baseball history to record multiple 5-walk games.

▶ He signed a 4-year contract extension through 2015 with a player option for 2016 on March 30.

2012

Greg opened the campaign as a set-up man and ended it as the club's closer...named the 2012 Bruce Rice Royals

2012

Felipe was able to make just 7 Major League starts after missing the first 25 games of the season with a right forearm strain and then leaving in the first inning of his start on June 6 and missing the remainder of the season after undergoing ulnar collateral ligament replacement surgery (Tommy John) on July 3.

▶ His 1.67 ERA was the second-best in MLB among pitchers with at least 7 starts (ATL's Kris Medlen, 1.57, 12 starts).

Allowed no runs in 4 of his 6 starts prior to the injury during his seventh start...according to Elfas, the only other pitchers in the Royals' 44-year history who have had such a stretch are Zack Greinke (5 times, including some overlapping sequences), Mark Gubicza (1989) and Roger Nelson (1972).

 Did not allow an earned run in any of his 4 home starts, the only pitcher in the Majors to do so with at least 4 home starts.

Allowed a .158 (9-for-57) average with runners on base and .065 mark (2-for-31) with runners in scoring position.

Became the first pitcher in franchise history to blank the Yankees in consecutive starts while pitching at least 6.0 innings in each outing on May 5 (5-1 win) and May 21 (6-0 win)...in addition, according to Elias, Paulino is the first pitcher to earn two wins and toss at least 6.0 scoreless innings in a calendar month against the Yankees since Oakland's Scott Sanderson in May, 1990.

007	First MLB win: September 25 at Cincinnati

Career Notes

- Since he made his debut in 2007, his 3.41 runs of support average is the fourth-lowest among all big league pitchers who have tossed at least 300 innings and made at least one start.
- Struck out 119 in 124.2 innings with KC in 2011, a ratio of 8.59 per 9.0 innings which was the fifth-best in club history (min. 120 IP).
- The Royals averaged 4.33 runs per 9.0 innings in his 2011 appearances, his most support since his rookie season (4.74/9 for Houston on 2007)...the 60 runs scored by KC matched the combined total scored while he was on the mound in 2009 and 2010.
- Opened his Royals career in 2011 with 12.1 consecutive scoreless innings.
- Equaled his career high by striking out 11 in a 4-2 win at Seattle on September 10, 2011...according to Elias, became the third pitcher in Royals history to record at least 11 strikeouts without a walk (Luke Hochevar, 13 K's on July 25, 2009 vs. Texas and Zack Greinke, 12 K's on June 13, 2009 at Cincinnati).
- Following the 2011 campaign, was a member of an MLB All-Star team that toured Taiwan and won all five games... he started the third game, a 6-2 MLB win, allowing 1 run on 3 hits in 4.0 innings, walking 1 and striking out 2.
- he started third game, a 0-2 MLD will, allowing 1 full of 3 little 4.0 limings, waiking 1 and striking out 2.1.

  Allowed just 4 home runs in 91.2 innings in 2010, averaging 0.39 home runs per 9.0 innings, which ranked eighthest among all Major League hurlers with at least 75.0 innings.
- Went a career-high 8.0 innings in three straight starts from May 30 to June 9, 2010 becoming the first Astros hurler since Roy Oswalt (2008) with three consecutive 8.0-plus inning starts.
- After missing the entire 2008 campaign with the exception of 1 rehab appearance due to a pinched nerve in his right arm, returned in 2009 to strike out 93 in 97.2 innings over 23 games (17 starts)...the 93 strikeouts were the most by an Astros rookie since 2003 when Brad Lidge struck out 97 and Jeriome Robertson struck out 99.
- Was just 3-11 during his 2009 campaign, but lost 4 starts in a 6-start stretch from August 23-September 20 when the Astros failed to plate a run for him while he was in the game...the 6-start stretch with no runs scored covering 29.1 innings was the longest for a pitcher who made at least 6 starts since Cleveland's Mike Paul (33.0 innings) in 1969 (Elias Sports Bureau).
- His 93 strikeouts in 2009 were fifth in the N.L. among rookies.
- Made his Major League debut on September 5, 2007 at Milwaukee in a relief appearance.
- From 2006-08, rated as having the "Best Fastball" among all Astros prospects by Baseball America.
- > Originally signed by Houston out of the club's Venezuelan Academy as a shortstop.

2012

Salvy came off the 60-day D.L. on June 22 with an 11-game hitting streak in which he hit .425 (17-for-40) with 3 doubles and 3 home runs...he had missed the entire 2012 season to that point after undergoing surgery in March to repair a torn meniscus in his left knee.

Led all MLB catchers with 5 pickoffs in just 74 games, 2 more than anyone else...the 5 pickoffs were a franchise single-season record and his 8 career pickoffs also are a Royals career record.

Posted a career-best and 2012 team-high 17-game hitting streak from August 22-September 13...hit .361 (26-for-72) during this streak which was the longest ever by a Royals catcher...also hit in 16 straight as a catcher (1 as DH), the longest streak by a MLB backstop in 2012.

 After returning from the D.L. on June 22, led all A.L. catchers (min. 70 games caught over that span) in average (.301), hits (87), runs (38), and doubles (16).

 His 27 strikeouts were tied for the second-fewest in MLB among players with at least 250 at bats...fewest was Philly's Placido Polanco with 25.

 Opponents attempted just 40 stolen bases in his 74 games and he caught 15 of the 40 (37.5%), the best pct. among all A.L. catchers (min. 70 games).

Hit his first pro walk-off homer on September 15 vs. Los Angeles.

Following season, played for La Guaira in the Venezuelan Winter League...serving as the DH for a majority of his 32 games, he hit .371 with 10 doubles, 8 home runs and 39 RBI and was named Venezuelan Winter League Rookie of the Year.

Signed a five-year contract through 2016 with three options seasons: 2017, 2018 and 2019, on February 27, 2012.

Following regular season, was named Venezuelan Winter League Rookie of the Year after batting .371 (49-for-132) with 10 doubles, eight home runs, 39 RBI and 23 runs in 32 games for La Guaira.

- The eight Rawlings Gold Gloves are tied for the thirdmost all-time among second baseman
- Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- Named to TSN Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- Played in seven postseasons and two World Series

Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just 4 errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Starteam five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranks seventh all-time in career fielding percentage among second basemen, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

White's Royals Hall of Fame portrait

Following his career-best 1986 season. White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases, and extra base hits. He hit three inside-the park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

White was honored with the Ernie Mehl Award for his contribution to the Kansas City community in 1988.

Dick Howser

Manager, 1981-1987

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won three division titles and a World Championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skippering the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 edition was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the A.L. West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota. Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool, Former Royals Scouting Director Syd Thrift (a future Yankees General Manager) was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L., Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

1960 ALL-STAR GAME - MUNICIPAL STADIUM

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the N.L. would win once again, shutting out the A.L., 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the N.L. and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the N.L. a 3-0 lead.

The N.L. added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a 2-run home run in the eighth to bring the A.L. within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

Al Lopez managed the American League and was joined by coaches Tony Cuccinello and Don Gutteridge. The National League was managed by Walter Alston, who was joined by coaches Solly Hemus and Fred Hutchinson.

Finally, Hall of Fame umpire Nestor Chylak umped both second and first base in 1960 and then returned to Kansas City to umpire home plate during the 1973 All-Star Game.

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the 1st All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill Hallahan, Lefty Gomez, Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Dykes and Charlie Gehringer.

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with 2 runs in the top of the 3rd and also scored in the 4th, 5th and 6th innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing 2 hits and 1 ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a 2-run homer in the 5th inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the 4th inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas, and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

Dick Williams managed the American League and was joined by coaches Whitey Herzog and Chuck Tanner. The National League was managed by Sparky Anderson, who was joined by coaches Gene Mauch and Bill Virdon.

Kauffman Stadium (then Royals Stadium) was the host of the 1973 All-Star Game which featured 17 future Hall of Famers.

2012 ALL-STAR GAME - KAUFFMAN STADIUM

GAME SUMMARY:

Kansas City hosted its third MLB All-Star Game on July 10, 2012. The 83rd version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Kauffman Stadium with the National League prevailing, 8-0, moving the senior circuit's record to a perfect 3-0 in All-Star Games playing in the City of Fountains.

11 pitchers combined on the six-hit shutout for the National League with the win claimed by starter Matt Cain.

The victory was the National League's third straight and clinched home field advantage which proved beneficial for the San Francisco Giants who won the first two games of the 2012 World Series en route to a sweep over the Detroit Tigers. Giants played key roles in the All-Star Game win, including MVP Melky Cabrera, starting and winning pitcher Matt Cain, and 2012 World Series MVP Pablo Sandoval, who connected for a three-run triple.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 40,933 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Justin Verlander of the Detroit Tigers, scoring five times.

After a strikeout to open the game, a Melky Cabrera single and Ryan Braun double scored the game's first run. A pair of two-out walks loaded the bases for Pablo Sandoval, who emptied the bags with a triple. Dan Uggla followed with a single driving in Sandoval.

Neither league threatened until the fourth when the National League added three runs, all with two outs, to create the final 8-0 deficit. Rafael Furcal tripled, then scored as his Cardinals teammate Matt Holliday singled. Melky Cabrera followed with a two-run home run to deep left field.

The American League's best scoring chance came in the bottom of the fifth as back-to-back one-out singles from David Ortiz and Mike Napoli and a two-out walk to Asdrubal Cabrera loaded the bases. But Ian Kinsler flied out to end the threat.

Cabrera of the San Francisco Giants, who played with the Royals in 2011, was named the MVP after going 2-for-3 with two RBI and two runs scored.

Interview periods are arranged prior to and following Royals games through the Royals Media Relations Department.

Pregame: The manager, coaches and players are generally accessible before batting practice on the field and in the clubhouse. Players are not available during stretching and batting practice, and pregame interviews should not interfere with the players specific game preparations. Manager Ned Yost is available to the media before games in the Royals dugout, usually around 4:30 p.m. prior to 7:10 p.m. games. He may also be available before the clubhouse opens upon special request through the Media Relations Department. The postgame interview room is specifically designed for, but not limited to, the electronic media. This is the only area where the electronic media may interview the manager postgame. There will be no postgame interviews allowed in the manager's office unless notified by a media relations representative. Postgame interviews with all personnel should be related to the game and not of the feature variety.

Photographers will be assigned to photo bays on the field at either end of each dugout or the bay located in the main press box. Photographers in the dugout field boxes should leave between innings only. Photos are allowed during batting practice, but photographers should remain in foul territory in the area behind the first and third base bags on the dirt warning track. Photographers should assume their assigned positions at the conclusion of batting practice. Wireless Internet is available.

The clubhouse will be closed for the remainder of pre-game when the Royals are on the field for batting practice. Members of the media must have a specific reason for clubhouse access to gain admittance and are asked to not loiter. For postgame interviews, the clubhouse will open approximately 10 minutes following the game. The Royals clubhouse will be closed between games of a doubleheader.
